INVITE YOU TO A MINI-RETREAT ON
Loving Our Enemies

Saturday, February 8, 2020
St. Bernard Church Parish Hall
150 Broadway, Rockland, ME
11:00am – 3:00pm

coffee and visiting at 10:30; please bring brown-bag lunch

How can we be at peace and truly love our enemies – in our families, towns and in the wider world? Following Christ's teachings makes it possible. Growing into a loving community makes it easier.

Join us for a time of prayer and reflection. Father Bob Vaillancourt, pastor, will start the day with a brief period of Taizé prayer. Jack Seery of Pax Christi will lead us through recent reflections on the Prayer of Saint Francis, provided by the Agape Community. Deacon Bob Cleveland will start us off after lunch with experiences on contemplative prayer. Sacred silence in these noisy times will be experienced as well as Spirited discussions.

Snow date – February 15th (and Feb. 22nd if both the 8th and 15th aren't good).

No charge, but donations to Pax Christi Maine most welcome.

It would be helpful to know how many plan to attend, so if you are as sure as can be, please let us know by January 28th.

ALL ARE WELCOME regardless of early notification.
