

Maine Peace Education Initiative – Contact us for more information

Americans Who Tell the Truth - Through portraits and narratives of courageous citizens, activist/painter, Rob Shetterly educates people of all ages about citizenship, democratic ideals and the common good. Arrange an exhibit in your school or community. <https://americanswhotellthetruth.org/>

Pace e Bene / Campaign Nonviolence – is dedicated to building a new culture of peace and active nonviolence. Rivera Sun provides training on peace building, nonviolent conflict resolution, community activism, use of art and creativity to engage young people in a peaceful future and much more. <https://paceebene.org/campaign-nonviolence> ; <https://riverasun.com/>

Pax Christi Maine – is the peace and justice movement of the Catholic Church with members who work to promote peace and practice Jesus’ way of nonviolence. PCM rejects war, preparations for war, and violence in all its forms. Join local groups and statewide activities. www.paxchristi-maine.org ; memquinn@peoplepc.com

Peace Action Maine - is a voice of education and a center for people committed to disarmament and creative, nonviolent responses to conflict. Campaigns focus on impact of defense budget on human needs; corporate globalization and militarism; lobbying, advocacy and direct action. Join upcoming zoom event on Oct. 2nd at 12 noon with Prof. Doug Allen on Gandhi. <https://peaceactionme.org/>

Peace and Justice Center of Eastern Maine - supports and link groups and individuals working toward a world of peace, human rights, economic justice, and a sustainable relationship with the Earth. Join our every Wed noon vigil in downtown Bangor. Sign up for action alerts. peacectr@gmail.com

Peace and Justice of Waldo County - holds a monthly forum on peace and justice issues at the Belfast Library (third Wed) and a weekly stand for peace on Sundays at 12 noon in Belfast. Primary focus is on Gaza, ending U.S. complicity and opposing U.S. militarism. peace.and.justice.waldo@gmail.com

PeaceWorks Brunswick – offers a nonviolent approach to resolving conflicts; addresses local, national and international policies; collaborates with others to educate on peace, social justice & environmental issues, all issues important to citizens of a democracy. info@peaceworksbrunswickme.org

Unity Center for Spiritual Growth – An inclusive, vibrant and loving spiritual community serving greater Portland. Join us for Sunday celebration at 10am. We offer retreats, meditation, education, groups, and speaker events. <https://unitygreaterportland.org/>

Veterans for Peace Maine – Tom Sturtevant Chapter is an educational and humanitarian organization dedicated to the abolishment of war; increasing public awareness of the costs of war; ending the arms race and reducing/eliminating nuclear weapons; and to seeking justice for veterans and victims of war. Join our events and actions. <https://vfpmaine.org/> ; Doug Rawlings rawlings@maine.edu

World BEYOND War - works with partner organizations and peace seekers worldwide to educate about and advocate for the abolishment of the institution of war itself, not just the “war of the day.” Its numerous educational programs and resources are based on knowledge and research that expose the myths of war and illuminate proven nonviolent, peaceful alternatives. <https://worldbeyondwar.org/> or contact Martha Morrison at medhelpmaine@gmail.org

